To Our Good Friends, City

We are at present quitting the retail trade in this city in order to devote more time and energy to our wholesale and shipping business. Please accept our thanks for the liberal patronage you have given us. We assure you we are not quitting because we do not appreciate your favors and the kindly encouragement you have given our efforts to supply the trade of the city with pure, wholesome milk and cream. It has been a pleasure to serve you. Again thanking you, we remain, Very truly yours, grabbest very much like the historic Phoenix incident. It was over a substitute umpire, Winkson being ill and unable to serve. In consequence he is much in demand for next Sunday's games in Tucson. However, it was definitely arranged yesterday that he is to come here and join the Prescott excursion and the ticket has already been sent to him. That settles the umpire business. Joe Dillon, arriving from Prescott yesterday, says the Prescott people are making great preparations to entertain the Phoenix excursionists and will give them the best kind of a
